

Direction to Yang Yang's Office and Lab at UCLA

In Google map, you can search UCLA Parking Booth, it will take you to the Parking Service for parking permit. Parking Lot 9 is right next to it.

(IF you already have a parking permit, you can search UCLA Parking Lot 9).

From North: (San Francisco, Santa Barbara...)

Take Freeway 405 South

Take Wilshire Blvd Exit (toward East, or the second exit of Wilshire Blvd Exit.)

Turn left at Westwood Blvd. (It is the 4th set of traffic light from the 405 freeway exit).

On Westwood, after five or six sets of traffic lights, the parking service kiosk is located at your left-hand side.

Please pick up (or purchase) the parking permit and proceed to Lot #9, which is located at your right hand side). This is the parking lot next to Engineering-4 building. The access to the ground level is on the Level-3. Once you leave Park Lot-9 (please exit from south side, or the exit near the Eng-IV buildings), please follow the map in the next page to my office or lab.

From South or East: (LA Lax, San Diego...)

Take Freeway 405 North (If you are from East, please take Freeway 10, and turn into Freeway 405 North)

Take Wilshire Blvd Exit (towards East, or the first exit of Wilshire Blvd Exit.)

Turn left at Westwood Blvd. (It is the 3rd set of traffic light from the exit of Freeway 405).

After five or six sets of traffic lights, the parking service kiosk is located at your left-hand side.

Please pick up (or purchase) the parking permit and proceed to Lot #9, which is located at your right hand side). This is the parking lot next to the Eng-IV Building. The access to the ground level is on the Level-3 of Lot-9, and you can access to the Eng-V from Level-3 by walking for 2 minutes.
